

Ryzom - Bug # 913

Status:	Closed	Priority:	High
Author:	CatcherInTheRy	Category:	Services: General
Created:	05/18/2010	Assignee:	kervalala
Updated:	05/28/2010	Due date:
Subject:	shard_start.bat file unable to locate service executable files. (compiled on VC 2008 Express, win7 64pro, as win32 app)
Description	The code/ryzom/server/shard_start.bat file expects the service exe files to be located under code/ryzom/server/Release but the exe's are created under code/ryzom/server/obj/Release. The shard_start.bat file needs to be modified or the executables need to be copied to the expected location, post build.

I don't suggest this being fixed via the start.bat and it takes 2 secs to do this but yet fix the move/copy of the exe's back into the proper format of code/ryzom/server/Release.

do you use cmake?

I use the sln/vcproj from repo and exe are in src/servicename/servicename.exe and the .bat are working
